

Los Angeles City High School District
Diploma of Graduation

A Message to You from Belmont High School

Belmont High School received you as a stranger. She welcomed you and pledged to do her best for you during your stay with her. She has made every effort to serve your interests, and now she sends you out into the community in the hope that you will do your best to make this world a better place in which to live. She has confidence in you, and sincerely believes that you will add to the sum of goodness in the world by serving your fellow citizens generously and unselfishly.

As evidence that you have already satisfied the demands made upon you by society, you will receive a diploma of graduation Friday morning.
